SUMMER INTENSIVE JUNIORS

June 24–July 26, 2019 (one to five week sessions)
Princeton University Campus, Princeton, New Jersey 08544
Summer Intensive Juniors is for dancers ages 9–11

Summer Intensive Juniors emphasizes technical progress, strength building and flexibility, increasing coordination, and having fun!

Daily intermediate ballet technique classes focus on correct alignment and use of épaulement. Additional class time includes dance history, anatomy, performance skills, and dance composition. Two or three sessions of arts and crafts each week relate to the history of ballet, and might include design of minor costume pieces, such as headpieces, for students to wear in performance for families.

Students may register for any or all of the five weeks. Admission is on a first-come, first-served basis and enrollment is limited.

Age Guidelines: Summer Intensive Juniors is for dancers ages 9–11. If they are already students at Princeton Ballet School, they should have completed Level 1 or Level 2.
